Interpreting, VRI, and CART Community,

The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS), Bureau of Rehabilitation Services (BRS) is pleased to announce that South Central Indiana Interpreting (SCII) has been selected through a Request for Service (RFS) Process, as the Coordinating Unit for BRS Interpreting Services. Current contracts for Interpreting services will remain in effect until December 31, 2009. SCII's contract will take effect December 2009 to allow the agency to coordinate interpreting services for all college classes beginning in January 2010. SCII will be responsible for hiring, scheduling, confirming, and billing for all Interpreting, Video Remote Interpreting (VRI), and Communication Access Real-time Translation (CART) services for DDRS. Janet Lancaster, owner of SCII will be working with Indiana's current network of qualified Interpreters, including local freelance interpreters and interpreting agencies in order to fill assignments. Please join us in congratulating Janet Lancaster of South Central Indiana Interpreting agency!

Sincerely,

Michael Hedden, Director
Bureau of Rehabilitation Services
